

LL.M. TRIMESTER – III (Choice Based Credit System) (2013 Course)
/ (2015 Course) : SUMMER - 2019

SUBJECT: GROUP B : HEALTH LAW
(CONSTITUTIONAL & ADMINISTRATIVE LAW)

Day : Thursday
Date : 23/05/2019

Time : 10.00 AM TO 01.00 PM
Max. Marks : 60

S-2019-1863

N.B.:

- 1) Attempt ANY FOUR marks.
 - 2) All questions carry EQUAL marks.
-

- Q.1 The aspect of human health is regarded even more important as compared to the right to property. Explain the right to health as incorporated in the Indian Constitution.
- Q.2 For the protection of individual health, it is important to protect the community health. Discuss the state's responsibilities for community health in a welfare society.
- Q.3 Efficient and healthy management of rural sanitation and waste management is an important factor of protection of public health in a society. Discuss the issues of rural sanitation and waste management.
- Q.4 In order to protect the right to health, it is necessary to protect the right to environment. Explain the right to environment as incorporated under the Indian Constitution.
- Q.5 An important aspect of health of an individual is the regulation and control of some Drugs. Explain as to how the law tries to preserve the right to health with the help of Drugs and Cosmetics Act.
- Q.6 Discuss the liability for medical negligence in public hospitals.
- Q.7 Explain the role of W.H.O. in promoting health.
- Q.8 Write short notes on ANY TWO
- a) Medical Negligence
 - b) Euthanasia
 - c) Advertising and Consumer Protection Act.

* * * *
