Q.4

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions given below:

(15)

Love of justice will lead you to recognize every person's right to life. This is, indeed, that first and most fundamental right of every man, woman and child. The precept, "thou shall not kill", is common to all religions and ethical systems. But it is sad to reflect that murder still counts its victims by hundreds, if not thousands, each year. In war, number may rise to millions. Duels are still fought in some countries. Infanticide is openly or secretly practiced by a few communities. Rivalry and jealousy in love incite to murder, and especially in countries where alcoholic beverages are commonly used and the imagination is over sexualized by art and literature. Avarice arms the hand of the poor or greedy murderer who is himself the victim of capitalism. Striking working men and unarmed agitators are sometimes murdered by the police and the militia. Prisoners who attempt to escape are shot down under certain circumstances. Among very backward tribes murder for cannibalism or ritual still prevails. Many governments also murder the criminal who has killed a brother-man; this legalized murder is called 'justice' and 'punishment'. But some humane nations have abolished this barbarous custom. Some motorists are guilty of the murder of pedestrians through culpable carelessness. Some working men are murdered in factory accidents which are caused by the avarice of the capitalists. Racial or religious riots result in many murders in several countries. Fascism murders some of its political opponents secretly or openly. Imperialism provokes murder and then retaliates by murder. Capitalism murders millions by slow starvation and premature death. Thus men, women and children are killed today, in peace and war.

- i) What is common to all religions and what is its importance?
- ii) Write words from the passage which mean the following:
 - a) A person who eats human flesh
 - b) Relating to the philosophical study of ethics
- iii) How is capitalism responsible for murders?
- iv) Write sentences of your own using the following words:
 - a) Culpable b) Barbarous
- v) What are the personal reasons that incite men to kill others?
