Q.5

Read the passage below and answer the questions.

(15)

I do not care. Let the things be illusions or not, after all I would then also be an illusion but they will always love me.

I am only interested in being able to love the world not to despise it, not to hate it and I would look upon all beings with love, admiration and great respect.

Not knowing any more whether time existed Siddhartha had returned home after many years to see his son and his wife Yashodhara. He was very happy to see them. He stayed for a while and then again set out towards the forest in quest for knowledge.

Buddha said that things can be loved. But I cannot love words. Therefore, teachings are no good for me, they have no hardness, no softness, no colours, no edges, no smell, no taste and they have nothing but words. We can back from a river, a tree, a piece of bark, a stone. These are things and things can be loved.

- i) 'I am only interested in being able to love the world'. Explain the statement in your own words.
