

LL. M. SEM-II (2015 Course) CBCS : SUMMER - 2019
SUBJECT: LEGAL EDUCATION AND RESEARCH METHODOLOGY

Day : Thursday
Date : 16/05/2019

S-2019-1814

Time: 10.00 AM TO 01.00 PM
Max. Marks: 60

N.B.:

- 1) Attempt any FOUR Questions
 - 2) All questions carry EQUAL marks.
-

- Q.1 The main characteristic of research is its logical and empirical nature. Elucidate meaning, objective and characteristics of research.
- Q.2 Doctrinal research is concerned with legal prepositions whereas empirical research is more concerned with social values and people. Comment on the main differences between Doctrinal and Empirical research.
- Q.3 A research starts with the identification of research problem. Analyze types of research problem and advantages of right selection of research problem.
- Q.4 A good research design is an outcome of well planned and conceptualized work. Evaluate the features and types of research design.
- Q.5 In the socio legal research sampling technique is used to the maximum to extract the data. Elaborate.
- Q.6 Observation is an affair of eyes rather than of ears. Compare observation and interview method of data collection.
- Q.7 Report writing is the last step to complete the research process. Evaluate the techniques of report writing.
- Q.8 Write short notes on:
i. Lexis Nexis & Westlaw
ii. Analytical Method

* * * *
