

LL.M. SEMESTER-III (2002 COURSE) : SUMMER - 2018
SUBJECT: INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN LAW & REFUGEE LAW

Day : Saturday
Date : 12/05/2018

S-2018-1480

Time : 10.00 AM TO 01.00 PM
Max. Marks : 60

N.B.:

- 1) Attempt ANY FOUR questions.
 - 2) All questions carry EQUAL marks.
-

- Q.1 International Humanitarian Law aims at humanizing war through war itself. Discuss.
- Q.2 Critically evaluate the protection accorded to the armed forces in the field and armed forces at sea.
- Q.3 There have been endeavors on the part of the International Community to present the interest of refugees; however the term refugee has remained of critical importance. Elucidate.
- Q.4 Examine strategies to combat refugee problem, referring to role of UNCHR and its relation to India.
- Q.5 Discuss the concept of war, and humanization of war. How it can be done? What is its object? Analyse effectiveness of relevant law to humanize war, in context of prisoners of war.
- Q.6 The use of nuclear weapons may cause indiscriminate sufferings and destruction to mankind and civilization. The radiation released by a nuclear explosion would affect health, agriculture, natural resources and demography over a wide area. Elucidate the various conventions which prohibited the use of nuclear weapons.
- Q.7 Elucidate the role of Red Cross in implementing the humanitarian Law.
- Q.8 Write short notes on:
- a) Amelioration of the wounded and sick
 - b) Protection of cultural properties during war, in context of Bamian statues in Afghanistan

* * * *