

LL. M. SEM-I (2015 COURSE) CBCS : SUMMER - 2018
SUBJECT: LAW AND SOCIAL TRANSFORMATION IN INDIA

Day : Wednesday
Date : 02/05/2018

S-2018-1437

Time: 10.00 AM TO 01.00 PM
Max. Marks: 60

N.B.:

- 1) Attempt ANY FOUR
 - 2) All Questions Carry EQUAL Marks
-

- Q.1 According to Jeremy Bentham, a change in the Society should be brought about by law and law alone. So law should lead the society. Explain as to how the law is responsible to bring about a change in society.
- Q.2 Today the religion is regarded as a divisive factor, and hence a reform on the secular lines is necessary. Elaborate on the secular reforms in the various religions.
- Q.3 In spite of formulating and enacting various laws in order to protect the women, still a number of crimes result against the women. State the reasons for the failure of the law to protect the women and eliminate the crime against women.
- Q.4 Explain in brief the provisions related to adoption under the Hindu Law.
- Q.5 "Every citizen makes an endeavour to protect his or her fundamental rights as enshrined in the Indian Constitutional. However, very few are aware of the fundamental duties. Explain in brief the constitutional duties and also state their importance.
- Q.6 Discuss the impact of industrialization of agriculture.
- Q.7 Explain the jurisprudence of Sarvodaya with reference to Gandhiji's views.
- Q.8 Write Short notes on ANY TWO:
- a) Naxalite Movement- Causes and Cure
 - b) Mediation and Conciliation
 - c) Women's Commission

* * * *