

S.D.E.

LL. M. PART-II (2008 COURSE) : SUMMER - 2018
SUBJECT: LEGAL EDUCATION & RESEARCH METHODOLOGY

Day : Saturday
Date : 05/05/2018

S-2018-4251

Time: 02.30 P.M. TO 05.30 P.M.
Max. Marks: 100

---

N.B.:

- 1) Attempt ANY FOUR questions.
  - 2) All questions carry EQUAL marks.
-

- Q.1 A legal education is the education of individuals who intend to become law professionals or those who simply intend to use their law degrees to same or either related to law or business. Comment.
- Q.2 Identification of a research problem is a vital work of a researcher because every problem may not be researchable and researchable problems are not suitable for all research. Elucidate.
- Q.3 In interview, a direct conversation between an interviewer and the respondent is held to collect information from the respondent. Elaborate types, merits and demerits of interview technique.
- Q.4 Research design is said to be the blue print for the collection, measurement and analysis of data. Elucidate the meaning, characteristics and types of research design.
- Q.5 Empirical research is an inquiry that attempts to discover and verify general rules allowing us to understand the nature and behavior of human beings. Examine the characteristics, merits and demerits of empirical legal research.
- Q.6 The purpose of discussion is to stimulate creative thinking and develop a tolerance for those with whom they may disagree. Examine objectives and kinds of discussion method.
- Q.7 Questionnaire is that tool of collection of data, which contains a systematically compiled and organized series of questions that are to be sent to the population samples. Explain the characteristics of good questionnaire.
- Q.8 Write short notes on any two of the following:
- a) Legal survey and law reform.
  - b) The problem method.
  - c) Random sampling techniques.

* * * *

---