- Q.4 A) Critically appreciate the passage given below with the help of the points (10) given:

Time a great equalizer of all mankind. It has taken a way the best and the worst of us without regard for either. Time offers opportunity but demands a sense of urgency.

When the game of life is finally over, there is no second chance to correct our errors. The clock that is ticking away the moments of our lives does not care about winners and losers. It does not care about who succeeds or who fails. It does not care about excuses, fairness or equality. The only essential issue is how we played the game.

Regardless of a person's current age, there is a sense of urgency that should drive them into action now this very moment we should be constantly aware of the value of each and every moment of our lives moments that seems so insignificance that their loss often goes unnoticed.

We still have all the time we need. We still have lots of chance. For most of us, there will be a tomorrow, a next week a next month and a next year. But unless we develop a sense of urgency, those brief windows of time will be sadly wasted as where the weeks and months and years before them. There isn't an endless supply.

Points:

- 2) Time is equal for everybody.
- 3) Every moment of life is precious.

- B) Attempt a critical appreciation of the poem with the help of the questions given below:

Easter Hymn

If in that Syrian garden, ages slain,
You sleep, and know not you are dead in vain,
Nor even in dreams behold how dark and bright,
Ascends in smoke and fire by day and night
The hate you died to quench and could but fan,
Sleep well and see no morning, son of man
But if, the grave rent and the stone rolled by
At the right hand of majesty on high.

You sit and sitting so remember yet
Your tears, your agony and bloody sweat,
Your cross and passion and the life you gave,
Bow hither out of heaven and see and save.

Questions:
