- Q.2 Read the passage and answer the questions given below: (15)
- Art, like words, is a form of communication. Words spoken and written, render accessible to human of the latest generation all the knowledge discovered by the experience and reflection, both of preceding generation and of the best and foremost minds of their own times.
- Art renders accessible to people of the latest generations all the feeling experienced by their predecessors and those already felt by their best and foremost contemporaries. Just as the evolution of knowledge proceeds by dislodging and replacing that which is mistaken, so too the evolution of the feeling proceeds through art. Feeling less kind and less necessary for the well-being of human kind are replaced by others kinder and more essential to that end. This is the purpose of art and the more art fulfills that purpose, the better the art; the less it fulfills it, the worse the art.
- Questions:
- 1) How the author has primarily developed the passage?
 - 2) How the author describes knowledge in the passage?

“Power of Attorney” includes any instrument empowering a specified person to act for and in the name of the person executing it. Thus, it is a document whereby one or more persons give an authority to one or more persons to act in his own place. Where it is related to one single transaction, it is called, the special power of attorney. But where it relates to several acts, it is general power of attorney.
