

LL. B. (3 Year Degree Course) SEM-II (2015 Course) (Chose Based Credit System) : WINTER - 2018

SUBJECT : JURISPRUDENCE

Day : Tuesday
Date : 30/10/2018

W-2018-1511

Time : 10.00 AM TO 01.00 PM
Max. Marks : 60

N.B.:

- 1) All questions are COMPULSORY.
 - 2) All questions carry EQUAL marks
-

- Q. 1 Many a times it has been stated that jurisprudence is devoid of practical application. Discuss the practical utility and importance of jurisprudence.
- OR
- Q. 1 The main theme of the modern 20th century natural law theory is that it has embodied relative and more flexible concepts. Elaborate the essential characteristic of the modern natural law theory.
- Q. 2 Hans Kelsen strives to keep his theory pure by excluding all metaphysical aspects outside his theory. Explain Kelsen's theory of law.
- OR
- Q.2 According to the realist approach legislation are only considered as the guiding posts to enable the judiciary to actually and factually develop and establish the law in the form of precedents. Explain the realist approach to law.
- Q. 3 In practice the common law of England has been created by the judge made laws i.e. the precedents. Explain precedents as a source of law and elaborate upon the parts of the precedents.
- OR
- Q. 3 Few relationships are as vital to man as that of possession and the law however primitive strives to protect the concept of possession. Explain the concept of possession and state the different kinds of possession.
- Q. 4 Ownership is a legal concept and consists of various rights. Explain the concept of ownership and also state the various kinds of ownership.
- OR
- Q. 4 The concept of corrective justice is a very old and fundamental concept of all the legal systems. Explain the concept of corrective justice and also state its application to the Indian legal system.
- Q. 5 'A's father was in the hospital and he died. Advice 'A' about the legal personality of a dead person according to the principles of legal personality.
- OR
- Q. 5 'A' has committed theft in 'B' house. 'B' wants to sue 'A' and impute criminal liability. Advice 'B' on the essential ingredients of criminal liability according to the principles laid down in jurisprudence.

* * * *