

LL.M. SEMESTER-II (2002 COURSE) : WINTER - 2017
SUBJECT : HUMAN RIGHTS OF DISADVANTAGED GROUPS

Day : Thursday
Date : 23/11/2017

Time : 10.00 AM TO 01.00 PM
Max. Marks : 60

W-2017-1341

N.B.:

- 1) Attempt ANY FOUR questions.
- 2) All questions carry EQUAL marks.

-
- Q.1 “Human rights have never shown any kind of Discrimination towards anyone. Instead they advocate welfare, well-being of all and equal treatment. However the socio-economic, political and cultural diversities makes the special treatment for some as mandatory”. Critically examine the statement and highlight the nature, meaning and scope of disadvantaged groups and the need for protecting their rights.
- Q.2 Elucidate the various legal protections accorded to the women in India alongside explaining the irony about rights of Muslim women.
- Q.3 “Inspite of a number of legislations placed to protect the children from harsh realities of child labour, sexual abuse and mental exploitation, the situation still remains unchanged”. Evaluate the statement analytically by highlighting the international and national legal frameworks set to protect children.
- Q.4 Narrate the constitutional protection conferred on the minority in India with the help of case laws.
- Q.5 Explain the plight of sex workers, illicit trafficking and the all-around discrimination against the HIV infected persons in India. Are there enough safeguard available in India?
- Q.6 “The tired eyelids, shaking hands, exhausted legs and a dying soul just need love as the last thing but instead they get humiliated, insulted and driven out of their own homes”. Comment by explaining the rights senior citizens, aged and old persons in India.
- Q.7 Write an essay on the rights of disabled persons in India.
- Q.8 Write notes on:
- a) Status of SC / ST
 - b) Indigenous peoples

* * * *