Q.4 Read the following passage and answer the questions given below: (15)

One of the most famous monuments in the world, the statue of Liberty, was presented to the United States of America by the people of France. The great statue which was designed by sculptor Auguste Bartholdi took ten years to complete from 1875 to 1884. He enlarged the model in plaster several times until he had 300 full – sized sections. The skin of the statue was formed by the repousse’ process in which copper sheets 25 mm thick were hammered into shape against wooden forms matching the contours of the plaster section. The engineering problems were solved brilliantly by Gustave Eiffel, already known for his daring bridge designs. A huge central wrought-iron pylon supported a secondary framework to which the statue’s skin was attached with flexible iron bars. The skin thus ‘floated’ on the pylon, strong enough to withstand high winds, yet resisting enough to expand and contract with changes in temperatures.

After its completion in June, 1884 the statue stood in Paris until it was dismantled and sent to America early in 1885.

The site chosen to erect the Statue of Liberty was an island at the entrance of the New York Harbour and near Ellis Island, a symbol of America’s immigrant heritage. The U.S.A had to provide the statue’s foundation and pedestal, designed by architect Richard M. Hunt. Public appeal for donations began in 1877, and in 1883 work began on the foundation, largest concrete mass of its time. The donations were not as generous as expected. Joseph Pulitzer, Hungarian immigrant and publisher of ‘The Word’, took on the job of raising the money. The completed pedestal and the Statue of Liberty which was 151 feet tall were dedicated on October 28, 1886. Ever since then, the great monument has been a symbol of liberty for the millions of people who have passed through New York Harbour to make their homes in America.
