

LL. M. SEM-I (2015 COURSE) CBCS : WINTER - 2017

SUBJECT : INDIAN CONSTITUTIONAL LAW NEW CHALLENGES

Day : Thursday
Date : 23/11/2017

Time : 10.00 AM TO 01.00 PM
Max. Marks : 60

W-2017-1301

N.B.:

- 1) Attempt ANY FOUR questions.
 - 2) All questions carry EQUAL marks.
-

- Q.1 The judicial process of Constitutional interpretation of the phrase 'other authorities' in Article 12 involves a technique of adopting the law to meet changing social moves. Comment with the help of important case laws.
- Q.2 Elaborate equality before law and equal protection of laws under Article 14 with the help of case laws.
- Q.3 "Allocations and share of resource distribution of grants in aid and the inter state disputes on resources is a challenge that politicians and judges have to face within framework of the constitution". Comment.
- Q.4 Explain various aspects of religious freedom and fanaticism. How state can regulate secular activities?
- Q.5 The cultural and educational rights of the minority communities are protected under Article 29 and 30. Discuss with the help of decided cases.
- Q.6 Examine with reference to the decisions of the Supreme Court, the policy of appointment and transfer of judges.
- Q.7 "The nature of directive principles is non-enforceable. Judiciary has enforced this principles in a very effective way". Analyse the role of the judiciary in the implementation of these principles.
- Q.8 Write a note on:
- a) Electoral reforms
 - b) Compensatory justice with case laws

* * * *