Q.1 a) Read the following extract and answer the questions that follow: [07]

The Elmore Bank had just put in a new safe and vault. Mr. Adams was very proud of it, and insisted on an inspection by everyone. The vault was a small one, but it had a new patented door. It fastened with three solid steel belts thrown simultaneously with a single handle and had a lock.

Mr. Adams beamingly explained its working to Mr. Spencer, who showed courteous but not too intelligent interest. The two children May and Agatha were delighted by the shining metal and funny clock and knobs. While they were thus engaged, Ben Price sauntered in and leaned on this elbow looking casually inside between the railings. He told the teller that he didn't want anything, he was just waiting for a man he knew.

- I am glad that I am a nurse because it gives me a great satisfaction in knowing that I am helping someone regain their full potential and bring them back to health. Being a nurse is not just an occupation. It is more like a commitment to the profession of nursing. It is a very hard but fulfilling job. Success or failure in the profession is entirely up to the nurse. Working in a small community allows us to form bonds with our patients who are our friends, family members and neighbors. There is a lot of stress and challenges in nursing. A sudden turn of events can may make or break your day. Every day is different and requires a different combination of skills and abilities. We learn something new every day which allows us to grow both professionally and personally. We play an active role in promoting and maintaining the health and well-being of our community and it takes a great deal of patience commitment and sacrifice to balance both home life and the job. But as nurses, we find this rewarding and we feel proud to be in the wonderful profession of Nursing.
